Get your hands on the hottest NEW PRODUCTS for your hair and body.

You want to have long, luxe lashes and now you can, thanks to Xtreme Lashes Heated Eyelash Curler. The brush-like design separates and smoothes mascara-coated lashes, and a protective guard keeps the heated coil from touching skin or eyes, so you stay safe. It can even be used on eyelash extensions! Log on to xtremelashes.com for more information.

Tired of messy, muddy moisturizing masks? Get a better facial with Skinvitals H-Revive Mask. The cloth mask is infused with protective honey, nourishing grape seed oil, and conditioning castor bean oil—just lay it over dehydrated skin for a visibly softer, refreshed complexion. For more information, log on to skinvitals.com.

Curl up with Back to Basics Jasmine Curl Activating Gel. Cucumber and guar smooth and seal each strand for shiny curls, while hydrating jasmine conditions and defines spirals. It's alcohol-free for even better, bouncier curls. Back to Basics products are available in select salons. Visit backtobasics.com to learn more.

Milk does a body good—but what can it do for your hair? V05 Moisture Milks Moisturizing Shampoo (only 99¢!) surrounds strands with soy milk proteins to moisturize and strengthen, leaving hair up to two times stronger. Choose from mouth-watering scents like honeydew, passionfruit, and strawberries & cream. Pick up this and other Moisture Milks products at drugstores nationwide, or visit v05.com.
