

3 YOU'VE GOT Short Lashes.
YOU NEED Lash Extensions.

One of Hollywood's best-kept secrets: individual synthetic hairs bonded to your own natural lashes (not your skin) with surgical glue. Penny Cheong of Xtreme Lashes says the lashes are tailor-made to suit you, have a natural curl and come in different lengths. "It looks very natural — you won't see a glue line," she says. About 40 lashes per eye are applied, and the process can take up to three hours. The extensions grow out with your own lashes and some are shed naturally over time. You should not use mascara (you won't need it anyway) as the oils may interfere with the bonding agent. Cost: A full set R600—R1 000; from R200 for fills. Call 082-312-0564. Angela Bassett and Daryl Hannah are fans of Xtreme Lashes.
