Wishful Blinking Eye Shine Giveaway!

There's no better way to make yourself feel Pretty than by adding a touch of glitter - that's why we love this new product from Xtreme Lashes called Wishful Blinking Eye Shine. The simple brush applicator is super easy to use and it's thin enough that you don't risk getting too much all over and making a glittery mess. Available in 5 shades, just apply it to your lashes for a little twinkle or use it on your lids for a more glittery pop. You can even use it on your cheeks to get some added glow for a sexy night out!

And the good news for our Pretty readers is that we happen to have an extra one in "Iridescent Mirage" (the pink shade pictured above) at Pretty Headquarters. Just send an email to comments@lapretty.com with your name, mailing address and Eye Shine in the subject line. We'll pick a winner at random and send it along to you.

(Giveaway ends at 12 PM on March 9, 2009; US residents only please.)

If you don't win, get it at The Parlour on 3rd (8113 W. Third Street, Los Angeles); 323/651-4200.
