

WHIP LASH

Everyone who has ever seen a picture of Paris Hilton knows about hair extensions, but the next big trend in extensions is all about eyelashes, because adding length to your lashes changes your face in remarkable ways. Not only will you never need to wear mascara again, but you'll be feeling like a sex kitten 24-7 with these synthetic lashes. Lash guru Ja'net Valdivia-Perez has been in the eyelash-extension business for three years. A former hairstylist, Ja'net is based in South Miami and exclusively uses Xtreme Lashes. The extension process takes two hours for the initial application and requires regular maintenance every two weeks. Customers also have to be vigilant about their peepers, which means no facials, steam rooms or oil-based beauty products. But the result is more than worth it. Ja'net also does eyebrow shaping and airbrush makeup. However, most Miami socialites, including Tracy Mourning, flock to her atelier for long, lustrous lashes. The lash revolution has begun. For more information, check out ja'netsbutterflykisses.com.

Tracy Mourning is a fan of Ja'net's Xtreme Lashes.