

The New Age of Lashes

Xtreme Lashes applied by Kathleen Champagne @ Tricho Salon and Spa Ann Arbor, MI

Lash extensions are the new rage and can be a life saver for those with little or no lashes. For those of you who want great lashes on a daily basis or for your event and want them to look natural and be an extension of what you already have this is perfect. Most of the time you will not need to wear mascara when you get the lashes. I am not an expert but I have seen many brides, friends and clients with the extensions and they love them. They are more expensive way to go then the strip or individual lash application but it is all preference and what you want to achieve in your finished look and they are fabulous.

Check out www.xtremelashes.com and the website will direct you toward a beauty professional who is trained to apply the lashes & eyelash extension salons. They will also show pictures of before and afters.
